

Am/is/are- was/were/will be- do/does/did- Have/has/had

1. Am/is/are and was/were/will be

They belong to be forms family.

They come with names, age, qualification, qualities, feelings, condition, possession and ing form of verb.

Combinations Examples:

- Action + ing:

Walking, Eating, Singing, Doing, Drinking, Waking, Crying, Flying, Drawing, Sleeping

- Qualities:

I am happy, I was happy, I will be happy, I am regular, I was regular, I will be regular

- Possession:

I am in Hyderabad, I was in Hyderabad, I will be in Hyderabad

- Condition:

I am busy, I was busy, I will be busy

What is the difference between am/is/are and was/were/will be:

The difference is only time.

Uses are same:

am/is/are used for present.

Was/were used for past.

Will be used for future.

2. Do/does/did

Do/does/did is used only with V1.

Do/does is used for everyday actions.

Did is used for past completed actions.

Examples:

Did you watch the movie? – watch is action

Do you watch the movie every week?

Did you watch the movie Hanuman?

Does the government keep its promises? - regular

Did the last government keep its promises? – past

Do you attend classes everyday? - regular

Does he attend classes everyday?

Did he attend classes yesterday? - past

3. Have/has/had

Have/has/had is used for ownership or possession.

Have/has is used for present time.

Had is used for past time.

Examples:

I have a lot of interest in English.

She has a car.

In my childhood, I had a bicycle.

We had a holiday yesterday.